

Dr. Antonio Messineo

Degree in Medicine, July 1974, Specialization in General Surgery, July 1979 and Specialization in Paediatric Surgery, July 1984, all obtained at University of Padua, Italy

November 1979 – August 1989 andNovember 1991 - January 1998
Department of Paediatric Surgery, Padua University Hospital, Italy
Staff in Paediatric Surgery

September 1989-October 1991
Department of Paediatric Surgery, the Hospital for Sick Children,
Toronto, Canada Clinical Research Fellow

February 1998 – April 2002
Department of Paediatric Surgery, Children’s Hospital of Trieste, Italy,
Chief

May 2002- December 2018
Department of Paediatric Surgery, Meyer Children’s Hospital of Florence, Italy Chief

November 2002 – October 2020
University of Florence, Italy Associate Professor of Paediatric Surgery

January 2004-October 2019
School of Speciality on Paediatric Surgery, University of Florence, Italy,
Director

22nd Annual Congress of the Chest Wall international Group

January 2007– October 2020

Pectus Center, Meyer Children's Hospital of Florence, Italy

Director

1st November 2020 – Today

Humanitas Gavazzeni Hospital, Bergamo, Italy

Consultant in Thoracic Surgery

Experience in the treatment of Chest Wall Anomalies

From September 2000 to today, over 500 MIRPE performed, of which around 400 as first operator.

Conservative treatment of Pectus Excavatum and Carinatum, more than 3000 patients treated, age ranging from birth to 60 years of